THE BOOK OF PAIRS (YAMAKA)

The Buddha expounded the Book, on Pairs (YAMAKA) which is the Sixth Book in the Abhidhamma Pitaka after he completed the Fifth Book on Points of Controversy (KATHA VATTHU). THE ABHIDHAMMA PITAKA (Basket/Division of BUDDHIST Ethical, Philosophy and Psychology) consists of seven books the last of which is the PATTHANA (Book on Conditional Relation).

What is YAMAKA (the Book, on Pairs) which is also known as the Book on Twin Verses? It is called so because of its presentation in pairs - the significance in twin meanings, the Pall twin won't in text and questions in its twosome rendering of regular and reverse order.

Why did the Buddha expound the Book on Points of Controversy (KATHA VATTHU) before the Book on Pairs? He taught the KATHA VATTHU first because He wanted to systematical remove Wrong Views regarding Wholesome and Unwholesome activities.

Thus without the Wrong Views, it is to facilitate study the Book, on Pairs. They can then ask and answer variously and expedited. Therefore the expounding of the Book on Points of Controversy first and the Book on Pairs subsequently, shows that the two books are very closely related and interdependent. The Book of Points of Controversy is the CAUSE in eliminating Wrong Views while the Book on Pairs is the RESULT.

Accordingly the YAMAKA Pairs has a Ten-fold division, namely:-

Mula Yamaka	-	Pairs on Roots
Khandha Yamaka	-	Pairs on Aggregates
Ayatana Yamaka	-	Pairs on Bases
Dhatu Yamaka	-	Pairs on Elements
Sacca Yamaka	-	Pairs on Truths
Sankhara Yamaka	-	Pairs on Formations
Anusaya Yamaka	-	Pairs on Latent Sates
Citta Yamaka	-	Pairs on Consciousness
Dhamma Yamaka	-	Pairs on Phenomena
Indriya Yamaka	-	Pairs on Faculties

INTRODUCTION

Leading the BOOK ON PAIRS is the Pairs on Roots. As in all the following divisions, there are charts and diagrams used to supplement the explanations in the introductions preceding each DIVISION as they occur in sequence. This is done to augment the clarity and for speedy understanding of the briefing in each of the introductions.

Accordingly the YAMAKA Pairs has a Ten-fold division, namely:-

Mula Yamaka	-	Pairs on Roots
Khandha Yamaka	-	Pairs on Aggregates
Ayatana Yamaka	-	Pairs on Bases
Dhatu Yamaka	-	Pairs on Elements
Sacca Yamaka	-	Pairs on Truths
Sankhara Yamaka	-	Pairs on Formations
Anusaya Yamaka	-	Pairs on Latent Slates
Citta Yamaka	-	Pairs on Consciousness
Dhaanma Yamaka	-	Pairs on Phenomena
Indriya Yamaka	-	Pairs on Faculties

Of these, The Buddha explained as follows:-

1. Mula Yamaka - the. Pairs on Roots which is further subdivided into:-
 - a) Uddesa - Numeration
 - b) Niddesa - Exposition

Of the two and in brief, Uddesa (Numeration) has four sub- classifications as shown below -

- a) Wholesome word
- b) Unwholesome word
- c) Indeterminate word
- d) Mental phenomenal word

Niddesa not only uphold the above clear explanation but also expounds them in greater detail.

Furthermore, Uddesa is again two-fold when reckoned in this way-

- 1) Tika - Matika (Triplet Table of contents} amounting to twenty-two-categories. while
- 2) Duka - Matika (Couplet Table of contents) amounts to one hundred categories.

A brief example of the Triplet Table of contents is as follows

- 1) Triplets on Wholesome state
- 2) Triplets on Feeling and so on.

In greater detail, Triplet on Wholesome State is ten-fold consisting of:-

1) Mula Vara	-	Chapter on Root
2) Hetu Vara	-	Chapter on Cause
3) Nidana Vara	-	Chapter on Source
4) Sambhava Vara	-	Chapter on Production
5) Pabhava Vara	-	Chapter on Birth
6) Samuttjhana Vara	-	Chapter on Arising
7) Ahara Vara	-	Chapter on Nutrition
8) Arammana Vara	-	Chapter on Object
9) Paccaya Vara	-	Chapter on Conditional Relation
10) Samudaya Vara	-	Chapter on Origin

Of the Ten mentioned in the above, Mula Vara is the Chapter on Roots and is four-fold as indicated below:-

1. Kusaia Pada	-	Wholesome words
2. Akusala Pada	-	Unwholesome words
3. Avyakata Pada	-	Indeterminate words
4. Kama Pada	-	Mental words

Of the four mentioned in the aforesaid, the Wholesome Word is four-fold

1. Method on foot
2. Method on root condition
3. Method on having root
4. Method on having root condition

And said Method on roots is three-fold as enumerated below:-

1. Pairs on the root
2. Pairs on the same root
3. Pairs on the mutual root

Again, of them the pairs on the root is two-fold (of questions):- and furthermore each of the question has two aspects that is:-

1. Certain word in pair, and
2. Uncertain word in pair

How certain? They are hereby explained.

There are twenty-one wholesome consciousnesses and thirty-eight mental factors which are classified as wholesome slates and must be understood as such.

And now how Uncertain? Given below are three roots of wholesome consciousness.

1. Non-greed
2. Non-hatred
3. Non-delusion

but it is Uncertain about their being wholesome or not.

Therein the other two remaining, that are the pairs on the same root and pairs on the mutual root are similarly explained, as pairs on the root

In the same way, the three other roots which are Method on root condition. Method on having root and Method on having root-condition explained as before. .

Thus at the Method on roots, there are three types of pairs, six questions and twelve specifications.

As such, the rest of the three remaining methods, also have the same explanation all the Method on roots.

(Please refer to CHART "A" and "B" in the APPENDIX)

NIDDESA - EXPOSITION:

NIDDESA means exposition in greater detail and begins with the Chapter on ROOTS. Niddesa is also two-fold, that is

1. Tika Matika - Triplet Table of Contents, and
2. Duka Matika - Couplet Table of Contents

The Triple Table of Contents consists of -

1. Triplet on the Wholesome Consciousness
2. Triplet on the Feeling .. and so up to the twenty two categories.

Of the twenty-two categories, just mentioned the Triplet on the WHOLESOME is two-fold namely:-

1. Chapter on Root
2. Chapter on Cause

And so on. The Chapter on Root is four-fold:-

1. Wholesome words
2. Unwholesome words
3. Indeterminate words
4. Mental words

The Wholesome Word is again four-fold:

1. Method on the root
2. Method on the root condition
3. Method on having root
4. Method on having root condition

The Method on Root is further sub-divided three-fold:

1. Pair on the Root
2. Pair on the same Root
3. Pair on the mutual Root

The Pair on the Root is two-fold as shown below:

1. In regular order
2. In reverse order

The Regular order is again two-fold:-

1. Question
2. Answer

The Question is also two-fold:

1. Certainty
2. Uncertainty

The rest can be similarly explained as is now done.

Please refer to the relevant CHART "C " in the APPENDIX.

To continue further in the Question its alterative is four fold:

1. Pure Panha	-	question in the first part
2. Paccha Panha	-	question in the last part
3. Panpunna Panha	-	question in complete (both) parts
4. Mogha Panha	-	question in vain

- 1) Pure Panha means quality to get optimum value of the first part of the Question.
- 2) Paccha Panha means quality to get optimum value of the last part of the Question.
- 3) Paripunna Panha means quality to get the optimum value of complete both parts of the Question.
- 4) Mogha Panha (also known All TUCCHA PANHA) means quality to get only VOID (NOTHING) of both parts of the Question and is mentioned only because of its token participation.

VISAJJANA (ANSWER) is five-fold, shown All follows:-

1. PALL GATI	-	Answer in Pall terms
2. PAT1VACANA	-	Answer in admission
3. SARUPADALLSANA	-	Answer in specification
4. PAT1SEDHA	-	Answer in preventing to the last part of uncertain words
5. PAT1KKHEPA	-	Answer by rejecting the first half of the certain words.

- 1) Pali Gati is answering according in the pall terms.

- 4) Patisedha is answering rejecting the last part of the UNCERTAIN word.
- 5) Patikkhepa is answering rejecting the first part of the CERTAIN word.

How the Questions and Answers are inter-related or connected.

- 1) If it is by questioning in the first part, then the answer is the reply in Pali Term.
- 2) If it is questioning in the last part then the answer is the reply in admission.
- 3) If it is questioning in the complete both parts the answers the reply is specification.
- 4) If it is by questioning the firstly in vain then the answer is the reply in avoidance.
- 5) If it is by questioning the secondly in vain then the answer is the reply in rejection.

With regards to the Question and Answer on the Positive and Negative basis.

Questions

- 1) The questioning in the second in vain is at the positive section.
- 2) The questioning in the first in vain and in the first part is at the negative section.
- 3) The questioning in the last part and the complete parts are at both the positive and negative sections.

*Please see updated page no.6 ****

Answers

- 1) The answer in avoiding is only at the positive section.
- 2) The answer in Pali Term and in rejecting are only at the negative section.
- 3) The answer in admission and in specifications are both at the positive and negative sections.

(Please refer to its relevant comprehensive CHART "D" in the APPENDIX).

VIBHANGA - ANALYSIS:-

Analysis (answer) is five-fold:-

- 1) PALI GATI - means the answer accordingly in Pali Terms.
- 2) AMANTA - means the answer in admission (and in position terms).
- 3) a) Single port - means answer responding to the relevant one part only.
b) Dual part - means the answer corresponding to All its complete whole.
- 4) NO - means to answer negatively.
- 5) NATTHI - means to answer by rejecting.

KOTTHALLA-DIVISION

The division is made up of two portions:-

- 1) PURJMA KOTTHALLA - the first portion in both the regular and reverse order.
- 2) PACCHIMA KOTTHALLA - the last portion in both the regular and reverse order.

Finally comes the description and reckoning according to the Universal existence found therein the Thirty-one planes.

VOKARA means the constituents (of a BEING) or Aggregates and is three-fold.

- 1) EKA VOKARA - is the plane of non percipient beings having only one material aggregate.
- 2) CATU VOKARA - is the four planes of immaterial beings having four mental aggregates,
- 3) PANCA VOKARA - All the remaining twenty-six planes

(i.e. excluding the plane of no perception and the four immaterial planes), are having five aggregates.

END OF MULA YAMAKA.

(MULA YAMAKA PALI NITTHITA.)

KHANDHA YAMAKA - PAIRS ON AGGREGATES

INTRODUCTION.

The BOOK ON PAIRS (YAMAKA) has Ten Divisions and the first of which has already dealt with is the Pairs on Roots. Following this, is the Pairs on Aggregates (Khandha Yamaka) which is the topic of this DIVISION.

Why did the Buddha expound the Pairs on Aggregates second to the Pairs on Roots? He did so because He wanted to reiterate what was explained in the Pairs on Roots in a more radical and profound dimension. This would obviate any unnecessary queries and doubts about the Pairs on Aggregates and also to facilitate its smooth study.

The Pairs on Aggregates consists of three Chapters namely:-

- (1) PANNATTI VARA - Chapter on Terms
- (2) PAVATTI VARA - Chapter on Process
- (3) PARINNA VARA - Chapter on Comprehension

Pannatti Vara - to define the terms of the Aggregate chapter. This chapter is advocated as the knowledge of Study.

Pavatti Vara - is as ascribed to the studying of the process, formation, the rise and fall of Aggregates Phenomena, and so on ... The study of this chapter of classified processes would give rise to Insight knowledge.

Parinna Vara - the aim of comprehension and understanding found in this chapter is to bring about the maturing of wisdom leading to realization and the attainment of the Noble Path and Fruition.

In general, these three Chapters would be to foster and encourage understanding, practicing and eradicating of defilements which are perfect antidotes to serious global social ills and evil corruption facing the world today.

No. 1 The Chapter on Terms is two-fold as shown below:-

- 1. Uddesa - is Numeration, and
- 2. Niddesa - is Exposition

Of the two, Numeration on the Chapter on Terms is again three-fold Chapter:-

1. PARICCHEDA VARA	-	is the Chapter on numerical reckoning.
2. PARICCHINNUDDESA VARA	-	is the Chapter on specific names.
3. VIBHAGA VARA	-	is the Chapter on analysis

1. Panccheda Vara means to briefly explain the aggregates, and so on numerically according to their numeric classification.
2. Paricchinuddesa Vara means to explain the specific meanings of the names.
3. Vibhaga Vara means to analyze the Aggregates, and so on in detail by the FOUR Methods.

However it is alternatively explained by the Ven. AYAKAUK Sayadaw who said that:-

1. The Chapter on Terms, numerically reckoned has a three-fold aspect:

1. KHANDHUDDESA VARA	-	wherein the aggregates are briefly enumerated.
2. NAMAVAVATTHANA	-	wherein contains the classification of names.
3. NAYA VARA	-	wherein is shown analysis of aggregates based on methods.

Furthermore and in greater detail :

1. Khandhuddesa Vara is the chapter that explains briefly the meaning of the number allotted to aggregates and so on.
2. Namavavatthana Vara is the chapter that explain the classification of names.
3. Naya Vara is the chapter that analyses all chapter based on the FOUR methods.

Of the above three, the Chapter on Methods is four-fold shown below :-

1. PADASODHANA VARA	- Chapter on Purification of Words.
2. PADASODHANA MULA CAKKA VARA	- Chapter on Wheel based on Purification Words.
3. SUDDHAKHANDHA VARA	- Chapter on Pure Aggregates.
4. SUDDHAKHANDHA MULACAKKA VARA	- Chapter on Wheel based on Pure Aggregates

Of the four described in the above :-

1. Chapter on Purification of Words	-	RUPA KHANDHA means the Materiality aggregate. Materiality Aggregates are materiality but is materiality the same as Materiality Aggregates?
2. Chapter on Wheel based on Purification of Words	-	means is classification described on a rotation pattern for each of the five aggregates and so on. Each of the remaining aggregates is also similarly rotated like a wheel. Example: matter is materiality aggregates. Are materiality aggregates equivalent of materially aggregates? Are aggregates the same as aggregates of feeling? and so on ...

3. Chapter on Pure Aggregates	-	means to explain aggregates only, example, materiality aggregate, aggregates are materiality, and so on...
4. Chapter on Wheel based on Pure Aggregates	-	means to explain Pure Aggregates. Materiality aggregates. Are the aggregates the same as aggregates of feeling? and so on ...

CHAPTER ON PROCESS

The Chapter on Process is three-fold :=

1. UPPADA VARA	-	means the Chapter on Arising
2. NIRODHA VARA	-	means the Chapter on Cessation
3. UPPADA NIRODHA VARA	-	means the Chapter on Arising and Cessation of the three mentioned above.
1. The Chapter on Arising is the explanation of the characteristics of Arising on Aggregate, and so on.
 2. The Chapter on Cessation is the explanation of the characteristics of Cessation on the Aggregate, and so on.
 3. The Chapter on Arising and Cessation is the explanation of the characteristics of Arising and Cessation on Aggregate, and so on.

The following Chapter is also three – fold :-

1) PUGGAIA VARA	-	Chapter on Individuals
2) OKASA VARA	-	Chapter on Realms
3) PUGGALOKASA	-	Chapter on Individuals and Realms
- 1). Chapter on Individuals - means to explain the arising and cessation in aggregates, and so on. according to the types of Individuals.

- 2). Chapter on Realms - means to explain the arising and cessation in aggregates, and so forth, according to the types of Realms.
- 3) Chapter on Individuals and Realms - means to explain the arising and cessation in aggregates, and so forth, according to the types of Individuals and Realms

1) The types of Individuals are twelve-fold namely :=

- 1) the woeful rootless worldlings
- 2) the happy rootless worldlings
- 3) the dual-rooted worldlings
- 4) the triple-rooted beings
- 5) the Stream-enterer of the Noble Path
- 6) the Stream-enterer of the Noble Fruition
- 7) the Once-returner of the Noble Path
- 8) the Once- returner of the Noble Fruition
- 9) the Non- returner of the Noble Path
- 10) the Non-returner of the Noble Fruition
- 11) the Worthy One (Arahat) of the Noble Path
- 12) the Worthy One (Arahat) of the Noble Fruition

This is the twelve-fold description of Individuals.

Then comes the Classification of individuals in relation to the Realms of existence.

- 1) Individuals of the woeful, rootless worldling type are found in the Four Woeful Realms and not anywhere else in the other remaining realms.
- 2) Individuals of the happy rootless worldling type are found in the Human World, the realm of the Four Great Kings Heaven and the Realm of Non-percipient beings and not anywhere else in the other remaining realms.
- 3) Individuals of the dual-rooted worldling type are only found in the seven happy sensual realms and not anywhere else in the other remaining realms.

4) The triple-rooted beings, the Once-returner of the first Noble Path, the Non-returner of the third Noble Path, the Stream-enterer of Noble Fruition, and the Once-returner of Noble Fruition are found in the Seven Happy sensual realms; ten of the five fine material spheres, excluding the five pure abodes (Suddhavasā) and Non-percipient realm, and the four immaterial realms; and they are not found in the other remaining realms.

5) The Stream-enterer of the Noble Path is the Seven Happy sensual realms and Ten Fine Material realms, but not found in the Four Woeful realms. Non-percipient realms, five Pure Abodes and four immaterial realms.

6) The Non-returner of Noble fruition and the Worthy One (Arahat) of the Noble Path and fruition are found in the seven Happy sensual realms, fifteen fine material realms, excluding the Non-percipient realm, and the four Immaterial realms: and not in the rest of the remaining realms.

Alternatively the description of realms wherein the respective Individuals are found, can also be similarly scheduled and classified.

Example - In the Four Woeful realms only the rootless worldlings are found and unlike in the other remaining realms.

In the Chapter on Process, the Buddha preached only the eight Individuals consisting of :-

The Four Worldlings, and
The Four Fruition Individuals.

as the Individuals of Four Paths although are arising and cessations of cognitive moments but birth and death do not occur to them in the very life.

CLASSIFICATION OF INDIVIDUALS IN THE CHAPTER ON COMPREHENSION

1) BABBA PUTHUJANA	-	fit enlightenment in this present life.
2) ABABBA PUTHUJANA	-	not fit for enlightenment in this present life.
3) ATTHA ARIYA PUGGALA	-	eight Noble Individuals.

- 1) The persons who are eligible to attain enlightenment in the Noble Path of the present tile.
- 2) The persons who are not eligible to attain enlightenment in the Noble Path and fruition of the present life.
- 3) The Eight Noble Individuals are already enlightened in me present life.

A stated in the BOOK of VIBHANGA and PUGGALA PANNATTI, these Individuals are not fit for Enlightenment :-

- 1) those who have committed the FIVE WEIGHTY ACTIONS (GARUKA KAMMA)
- 2) those who are dual-rooted worldlings

CELESTIAL YEAR The one celestial day (CD) in heaven of four great king equals fifty human years (HY). thirty days amount to one celestial months; twelve month constitute year (CY) . AN AEON: There are three kinds of Aeon namely,

1. an interim aeon.
2. an incalculable aeon, and
3. a great aeon.

An interim aeon is the period of time required for the life-span of human beings to rise from the ten years to the maximum of thousands of years and then fall back to ten years.

Twenty such interim aeon is equal one incalculable aeon and four incalculable aeon constitute one great aeon.

G.A. = Great Aeon

I.A. = Incalculable Aeon

C.Y. = Celestial Year

In the Pure Abode no worldings, stream-enterers or one returners are found in any way. Noble ones are not found in the non-percipient realm and in the woeful planes. In other planes are found both noble ones and non-noble ones (worldings).

AYATANA YAMAKA - PAIRS ON BASES

INTRODUCTION

In the Book on Pairs (YAMAKA), the third DIVISION deals with the BASES, which is the essence of this chapter. The previous chapters on PAIRS dealing with PAIRS on Roots and Pairs on Aggregates have been duly completed.

It is obvious that the PAIRS ON BASES expounded by the BUDDHA after the other two Pairs mentioned earlier came as an ornate sequence as they have strong successive connections. The Pairs on Bases is three-fold namely :-

- 1) PANNATTI VARA - Chapter on Terms
- 2) PAVATTI VARA - Chapter on Process
- 3) PARINNA VARA - Chapter on Comprehension

of them, the Chapter on Terms is two-fold :-

- 1) Uddesa - is Numeration, and
- 2) Niddesa - is Exposition

Of the two - the Chapter on numeration is again further divided into three-fold chapter

- 1) PARICCHEDA VARA - is the Chapter on numerical reckoning
- 2) PARICCHINNUDDESA VARA - is the Chapter on specific names
- 3) VIBHAGA VARA - is the Chapter on analysis

- 1) Pariccheda Vara means to briefly explain the bases, and so on, numerically according to their numeric classification.
- 2) Paricchinuddesa Vara means to explain the specific meanings of the names.
- 3) Vibhaga Vara means to analyze the BASES, and so on, in detail by the Four methods.

On the other hand, it is also three-fold as alternatively explained:-

- 1) AYATANUDDESA VARA - The Chapter wherein the bases are briefly enumerated.
- 2) NAMAVAVATTHANA VARA - The Chapter wherein contains the classification of names.
- 3) NAYA VARA - The Chapter wherein is shown analysis of bases with regards to methods.

- 1) AYATANUDESA VARA is the Chapter that explains briefly the meaning of the numbers allotted to bases, and soon.
- 2) NAMAVAVATHANA VARA is the Chapter that explains the classification of names.
- 3) NAYA VARA is the Chapter that analyses all chapter based on the FOUR methods.

Of them, the twelve bases are enumeration of bases in brief. Each of the twelve bases, is the classification of names.

The Chapter on Method is four-fold as shown :-

1) PADASODHANA VARA	-	Chapter on Purification
2) PADASODHANA MULACAKKA VARA	-	Chapter on Wheel of Words based on Purification of words
3) SUDDHAYATANA VARA	-	Chapter on Pure Bases
4) SUDDHAYATANA MULACAKKA VARA	-	Chapter on Wheel based on Pure Bases.

1) In the AYATAUA YAMAKA - PAIRS on BASES are five-fold as shown :-

1) CAKKHAYATANA	-	EYE BASE
2) SOTAYATANA	-	EAR BASE
3) KAYAYATANA	-	BODY BASE
4) GANDHAYATANA	-	TONGUE BASE
5) RASAYATANA	-	TANGIBLE (OBJECT) BASE

1) At the Pair of the Eye base, there is a five-fold section :-

1) DIBBA CAKKHU	-	The Divine Eye
2) PANNA CAKKHU	-	Eye of Wisdom discerning the eradication of defilements.
3) BUDDHA CAKKHU	-	BUDDHA Eye Consciousness
4) SAMANTA CAKKHU	-	Eye of Omniscience
5) DHAMMA CAKKHU	-	Eye of DHAMMA discerning the three lower Noble Paths

Of the above five, only two, that is the Divine eye and the Eye of Wisdom are chosen and spoken of because they are universal and easily understood. The rest are rather distant and too specific for general usage.

Unlike the ordinary Eye which is the Eye as well as the (Eye) base, the above five-fold Eye definition is only the EYE. without the base.

2) At the Pairs of the EAR base, there is a two-fold classification :-

- 1) DIBBASOTA - divine EAR. and
- 2) TANHA SQTA - EAR of craving

Both of the these (EAR) bases keep on intently listening to the perpetual universal desirous sounds that flow up and down the Thirty-one Realms of Existence and not heeding the call of Kusata (good) sounds from time to time. So they keeping on flowing with the tide of SAMSAARA (Round Of Rebirth).

The divine ear and the ear of craving are only EAR and has no base.

In the Chapter on Process, SOTAYATANA (SOUND BASE) is not mentioned because it is not obtained at the moment of conception.

3) At the PAIR of the BODY base, there is a three-fold classification shown below :-

- 1) Nama Kaya - means the eighty-nine CONSCIOUSNESSES, fifty-two mental states and one NIBBANA.
- 2) Rupa Kaya - means the twenty-eight kinds, sixteen of which is subtle and twelve remaining gross.
- 3) Pannati Kaya - means the two-fold classifications. One is name (of an object) and two is a term given to an idea e.g. society, association, and so on.

The three above is taken to be one group known as the mental group and is classified as body without base.

The ordinary material body has body and base.

4) At the Pair of NOSE base (which is essentially that of SMELL), this Is three fold when installed under the Eight- fold Path such as :-

- 1) Sita Gandha - means right speech, right action and right livelihood.
- 2) Samadhi Gandha - means right effort, right effort, right remembrance and right concentration.
- 3) Panna Gandha - means right understanding and right view.

Gandha literary means can smell and can spread its fragrance all around.

5) At the PAIR of TONGUE and base the classification of TASTE is four-fold as shown below :-

- 1) taste (delight) in Noble Consciousness
- 2) the four fruition is Attha Rasa
- 3) the-four paths is Dhamma Rasa
- 4) Nibbana is Vimutti Rasa -

The above is only taste and is without a base, while the material tongue has taste and body. The rest remaining is as mentioned with the exception of SADDAYATANA.

Finally AYATANA in the context of BASES and REALM is five-fold as follow :-

1) the EYE and EAR bases are found only in the twenty- six realms of PANCA VOKARA (five senses beings). it is not found in the rest remaining realms, the one aggregate Non- Percipient realm, and the FOUR IMMATERIAL realms.

2) the NOSE, TONGUE and BODY bases are found in the Sensual realms but not in the remaining rest of the planes of existence.

3) the FORM base (Rupayatana) is found in the twenty- six realms of beings with five aggregates and one aggregate, but is not found in the FOUR IMMATERIAL realms.

4) the MIND base (Manayatana) is found in the twenty-six realms of five aggregates, and the four IMMATERIAL realms but not in the Non-Percipient beings realm.

5) the Phenomena base (Dhammayatana) is found in ALL the thirty-one realms of existence.

As a fitting close to this Chapter, a special section on birth relinking should be mention. This section deals with rebirth, that is the various material and mental group come in existence and pass away. Another way of saying this is how beings are involved in the cyclic universal life.

In Buddhism there are four kinds of birth, namely :-

- 1) the egg-born beings (Anadaja)
- 2) the womb-born beings (Jalabuja)
- 3) the moisture-born beings (Samsedaja) and
- 4) the spontaneous-born beings (Opapatka)

1) The egg-born beings are also included among the womb-born. At the moment of conception all these obtain the three decads of body, sex and seat of consciousness. However, some are devoid of either the masculine or feminine sex. Therefore it can be seen that even eggs are constituted with a consciousness.

2) The Womb-born beings are found mostly in the Human realm which is shared by the animals and others like deities, spirits and so on in the lower realms of existence. Nevertheless, some of them are also asexual.

3) The moisture-born beings are normally found amongst the lowly beings, especially in the animals and spirits of miserable existence. Sometimes these are devoid in certain senses and are sexless.

4) The spontaneous-born beings are found in the lower arid higher heavenly realms, also amongst certain spirits/ghosts. Some of these beings are asexual. In the Fine Material realms, are not only asexual but do not have nose, tongue and body bases which have become latent.

However, all beings must possess a consciousness upon conception with the exception of Non-Percipient beings.

BONSINSAN (UNIVERSAL TRAVELLER) INDIVIDUALS

For any Buddhist literary work to be completed, it must include an account of this Bonsinsan Individuals. The Burmese (Myanmar) word Bonsinsan which is actually made up of three words.

- 1) Bon means existence
- 2) Sin means in successive serial
- 3) San means experiencing, enjoying

So, the Bonsinsan individual is usually one who attain the Stream-Enterer (SOTAPANNA) who enjoys existence (life) in one lower realms to the next higher realms until he reaches the highest realm of his choice and there attains the highest path and fruition, putting an end to his mundane life based on total eradication of defilements. With this, we have come to the end of the chapter on Individual, written for gladdening the hearts of good people.

END OF CHAPTER ON COMPREHENSION
(Pannavaro)

END OF THE PAIR ON BASES
(AYATANA YAMAKA PALI NITTHITA).

DHATU YAMAKA (PAIRS ON ELEMENTS)

INTRODUCTION.

Of the TEN DIVISIONS mentioned in the Book on PAIRS (YAMAKA), the Fourth Division is the PAIRS on Elements (DHATU Yamaka). Here Elements mean the ultimate constituent of a whole.

The Wholesome, Unwholesome and Indeterminate slates are now explained in the way of the Elements comprising the past, present and future for individual and planes. Elements are so called because they bear their own intrinsic natures.

The Pairs on Elements are again three-fold as follows

- (1) PANNATI VARA - the Chapter on Terms
- (2) PAVATTI VARA - the Chapter on Process
- (3) PARINNA VARA - the Chapter on Comprehension and so on { The rest is the same as stated in the preceeding Division, the PAIRS on Bases).

However, in the Chapter on Process mentioned above, the Sound element, the five Sense Consciousness elements and the Mind elements are Not mentioned therein because these seven elements do not arise at the moment of rebirth and death consciousness.

Elements are eighteen-fold and obtained from the twelve bases by dividing the mind-base into the seven element of consciousness. Stated below is the eighteen-fold elements :-

1.	Visual organ (eye)	]
2.	Auditory organ (ear)	]
3.	Olfactory organ (nose)	]
4.	Gustatory organ (tongue)	]	Physical elements
5.	Tactile organ (body)	]
6.	Visible object	]
7.	Sound or audible object	]
8.	Odour or Olfactory object	]
9.	Gustative object	]
10.	Body Impression	]
11.	Eye consciousness	]
12.	Ear consciousness	]
13.	Nose consciousness	]	Mental elements
14.	Tongue consciousness	]
15.	Body consciousness	]
16.	Mind elements (mano-dhatu)	]

17.	Mental object (dhamma-dhatu)	-	Either physical or mental or concept
18.	Mind consciousness element (mano-vinnana-dhatu)	-	Mental

The physical and mental elements of the above are obtained as earlier stated, from the twelve bases: consisting of the five physical organs and (one) consciousness, made up of the six personal (ajjhattika) bases the six object, being the so-called external (bahiddha) bases namely :-

1.	Eye or visual organ	-	Visible object
2.	Ear or auditory organ	-	Sound or audible object
3.	Nose or olfactory organ	-	Odour or olfactive object
4.	Tongue or gustatory organ	-	Taste or gustative object
5.	Body or tactile organ	-	Body impression or tactile object
6.	Mind-base or consciousness	-	Mental object (dhammayatana)

The Bases and Elements are identical in all other respect. Actually, the aggregates, bases and elements are correlated with the Four Ultimate Realities (that are Mind, Mental Status, Materiality and Nibbana).

Due to the Five sensory organs and the Five sense-field objects, the five elements of consciousness are respectively arisen in the cognitive progress. Of them, there is one called the Eye Consciousness element but it is not called as an element of visible object consciousness.

It is so because the sense-field object are related with other types of consciousness; but the sensory organs are related with their respective consciousness of organs only.

BIRTH and DEATH

The birth and death of beings experienced perpetually throughout eternity in unavoidable repetition has given numerous religious people much concern and dilemma.

Of the two, death in particular, has given much problems to the great thinkers and has remained unsolved. In the Buddha's teachings, however, is found (in ascending grades); the explanation that :-

1. the Non-returners (Anagamins) in the Highest Pure Abode (AKANITTHA) live only and never die.
2. the Arahants die only and are not reborn.

3. i) the four worldlings comprising :-
 - a) the woeful rootless worldlings.
 - b) the blissful rootless worldlings,
 - c) the dual- rooted worldlings, and
 - d) the triple-rooted worldlings, die and are reborn again and again.
- ii) the three lower fruition attainers also die and are reborn again until they finally attain Arahantship
4. The four Path Attainers who, on account of their attainment in the respective Paths for just that one moment, there is not BIRTH or DEATH occurring !

More about DEATH

There are two types of death that befall on living beings.
namely :-

- 1) the ordinary death whereby the person dies and is re born (again)
- 2) the attainment of Ultimate death, after which there is perpetual Bliss Supreme, uninterrupted by ageing, sickness or rebirth or death ever again.

(For further elaboration, refer to the ensuing tabulation).

SACCA YAMAKA (PAIRS ON TRUTH)

INTRODUCTION

In the Great Book on PAIRS (YAMAKA) consisting of Ten DIVISIONS beginning with the PAIRS on Root (Mula Yamaka), the PAIRS on Truth (SACCA Yamaka) is the fifth DIVISION.

The Wholesome, Unwholesome and Indeterminate states mentioned in the PAIRS on ROOTS, are now rendered in the context of four-fold Truth in the Division, which comes after the PAIRS on Elements (DHATU Yamaka). The Pairs on Truth is also three-fold as follows:-

- (1) PANNATI VARA - Chapter on Terms
- (2) PAVATTI VARA - Chapter on Process
- (3) PARINMA VARA - Chapter on Comprehension and so on (The rest is the same as stated in the proceeding DHATU Yamaka (PAIRS on Elements).

The significance of TRUTH is universally and competently affecting every sentient being equally, with the same justification. Accordingly there are FOUR TRUTHS, usually known as the Four Noble Truths:-

- (1) Truth of Suffering (Dukkha Sacca)
- (2) Truth of the Cause of Suffering (Samudaya Sacca)
- (3) Truth of the Extinction of Suffering (Nirodha Sacca)
- (4) Truth of the Path leading to the Extinction of Suffering (Magga Sacca)

To promote a better understanding, Suffering is also endured equally by all beings and everyone is affected just the same. There are various kinds of Suffering as shown below:-

- (1) Universal suffering
- (2) Suffering due to change
- (3) Gradual suffering
- (4) Suffering due to kamma

Why did the Buddha teach the Four Noble Truths, serially as stated in the above? For each of the Noble Truth so taught, the underlying reasons are given.

1. DUKKHA SACCA, the Truth of Suffering is taught first because :-
 - (1) it is obvious
 - (2) it concerns everyone and is universal
 - (3) it is easy to understand
 - (4) it brings a sense of urgency and apprehension to those passionately attached to life.

2. SAMUDAYA SACCA, the Truth of the Cause of Suffering is explained second because:- .

- (1) suffering is not just mere arising or a trifle
- (2) there has to be a Cause or Origination
- (3) desire or craving is the explanation for suffering
- (4) desire or craving is not created, nor a divine decree but an innate nature which springs from within each individual who has attachment.

Attachment has three aspect-

- (1) attachment has sense pleasures
- (2) attachment for continued existence
- (3) attachment for annihilation

3. NIRODHA SACCA, the Truth on Extinction of Suffering is taught third because:-

- (1) by eradicating the CAUSE (of suffering), then the result (suffering) also gets eradicated.
- (2) the teaching of the Extinction of Suffering brings relief and a sense of direction to happiness.

4. MAGGA SACCA, the Truth of the Path leading to the Extinction of Suffering is taught fourth because:-

- (1) the Path is found by realizing suffering and knowing its CAUSE.

The Four Noble Truths is the radical Teaching of Buddha who discovered this through His Enlightenment and repeatedly taught that thereafter during His dispensation. He did so because:-

- (1) the Four Noble Truth brings penetration to the Noble States
- (2) it is preached by a Supreme Noble One
- (3) its result to attain the Noble stage of sainthood (Supreme enlightenment)

Therefore, the FOUR Noble Truth taken as a whole has a very important place in the Dhamma dissemination. ..

When the FOUR NOBLE TRUTHS are treated in pairs, then out of the FOUR:-

- (1) the first pair consisting of :-
 - (a) Truth of Suffering, and
 - (b) the extinction of suffering under the Truth of Effect (Result), and the
- (2) second pair consisting of :-
 - (a) Truth of the Cause of Suffering, and.
 - (b) Truth of the Path leading to The Extinction of Suffering, is classified under the Truth of Causes.

DUKKHA SACCA (Truth of Suffering) also has a dual classification in terms of DUKKHA (Suffering) and SACCA (Truth) and is as shown below:-

Physical and mental suffering is DUKKHA but not SACCA (Truth).

Eighty-one mundane consciousness.

Fifty-one mental factors (except craving, physical and mental sufferings),
and

Twenty-eight matters (sense faculties), are DUKKHA (suffering) and SACCA (Truth).

Two groups of senseless matter, originating from temperature and concept, are neither suffering nor truth.

(1) INDRIYA BADDHA RUPA is material quality concerning living beings with sense faculties ; and

(2) ANJNDRIYA BADDHA RUPA is material quality which is the rest of things without the sense faculties.

From the above two-fold material quality that prevails, the external faculties are not included in the DUKKHA SACCA (TRUTH of Suffering) reckoning because they do not possess kamma or defilements.

Samudaya Sacca is the Truth of the Cause of Suffering also known as the Origin of Suffering. However, the Pali words SAMUDAYA SACCA conveys a meaning each of its own. SAMUDAYA means origination or arising or cause (of suffering) and SACCA means Truth with a supramundane flavour.

There are many origination of mental and material things, such as the arising of ideas, thoughts, philosophies etc. etc... but none of these are connected with Ariyan (Nobio) Truth. In a strict sense, these are not truths that can withstand the test of time and profound investigation. They are merely arising and origination, and not Truths.

The noble truth of the Origin/Cause of Suffering technically means the craving that gives rise to fresh rebirth and bound up with lust and greed, now here, now there, finds ever fresh delight. It is the sensual craving (kama-tanha), the Craving for Existence (bhava-tanha) and the Craving for Non-existence or self-annihilation (vibhava-fanha).

Regarding the cessation (NIRODHA), described in this Division, there are several types of cessation:-

- (1) temporary cessation
- (2) gradually cessation
- (3) totally cessation
- (4) ultimately cessation

However in the Chapter on Process at the PAIRS on Truth, Nibbana is not stated therein because it has not the usual three instants of the moment (genesis, static and dissolution).

The Truth of Suffering is mentioned in the process of life-time and the two moments of birth and death. The Truth of Path and the Truth of cause of Suffering are mentioned only In the process life.

The chapter on Comprehension does not include the Truth of Cessation and the Truth of the Noble Path because they are both already beyond the purview of mundane activities. Comprehension is also a three-fold classification as shown below:-

- (1) nata pannna - comprehension by knowledge
- (2) tirana pannna - comprehension by investigation or analysis
- (3) pahana parinna - comprehension through eradication.

The more comprehensive details state that defilements can be prohibited by:-

- (1) knowledge of study
- (2) experience of practice
- (3) attainment of eradication

Comprehension obtained through knowledge of study, practical experience and by eradication of defilements give the best level of understanding.

Upon the realisation of DUKKHA SACCA (Truth of Suffering), the comprehension on knowledge and by analysing or investigating can. be obtained. Upon the realisation of Samudaya Sacca (Truth of Origination of Suffering). the comprehension on knowledge and comprehension on eradication can be r obtained. For better clarity and easy understanding, see tabulation below:-

	(1. DUKKHA SACCA (TRUTH OF SUFFERING)
	(obtains comprehension by knowledge and analysis

	{ NOBLE (EIGHT-FOLD) PATH) }		(Comprehension)
	{leading to EXTINCTION of }		section.
	{SUFFERING }

Magga is Path. There are two kinds of path and they are:-

- a) ordinary path consisting of :-
 - (1) foot path
 - (2) a journey is also a path/route
 - (3) path made by its regular use; such as bullock cart path, caravan path, and so on.
 - (4) trail constantly used in the wilderness or jungle and becomes a path.
- b) Noble path consisting of
 - (1) morality path (sila magga)
 - (2) concentration path (samachi magga)
 - (3) insight path (panna magga)

Although in (a) ordinary path is also a path, it is only a conventional path meant for only worldly (physical) use and has no ultimate moral value. It can be used for countless time, yet is unable to give any spiritual upliftment and sanctity against the ever-recurring defilements.

Whereas in (b) the morality path (used by the practicing Buddhists), concentration path and the insight path give the Buddhist pilgrims, not only respite but also the soothing efficacy in those who have successfully obtained the various stages of sainthood. It is also the path walked by all the Noble Ones, as well for reckoning the truth.

The Truth of Cessation (or Extinction) is of various kinds as shown below:-

(1) temporary cessation	) Although there is extinction or
	} cessation but there is no Truth
(2) gradually cessation	} (SACCA) in these
(3) total cessation	} conventional cessation.
(4) suppression cessation	}

Only the total ultimate cessation of defilements can enable one to attain NIBBANA - everlasting Peace and Happiness. It is the cessation as well as the truth.

PREFACE

THIS TRANSLATION IS ESPECIALLY DEDICATED
TO MY LATE PRECEPTOR,

THE MOST VENERABLE

BADDANTA KUMĀRĀBHIVAMSA

*SĀSANADHAZA SIRĪPAVARA DHAMMĀCARIYA,

NAINGANTAW OVĀDĀCARIYA (NATION'S OVĀDĀCARIYA),
TIPIṬAKA OVĀDĀCARIYA, TIPIṬAKA PUCCHAKA*

In November 2010, I came to know that the English version of the four Yamaka out of the late five Yamaka were lost somehow. The Yamaka has ten kinds in which first five are called the lower Yamaka and the late five as the higher Yamaka. The English version of the lower Yamaka was written by Mūla Paṭṭhāna Sayadaw Ven. Nārada and Banmaw Sayadaw Ven. Kumārābhivaraṅga assisted by some other venerable monks and lay persons. The higher Yamaka English version was been written as well by these venerable masters. Somehow, only the copy of the lower Yamaka English version can be found these days.

By Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw, I came to know that the higher Yamaka English version is to be published again. But only one Yamaka (i.e. Indriya Yamaka) is left as manuscript and the other four Yamaka can not be traced now. So it is decided to make a new translation. By the wish of Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw, this work is firstly established.

The copied book of the five lower Yamaka English version which is shown by Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw to apply for, is deeply a good help in this translation. And the AYAKYAUK (or the Precise Definition written by ancient Myanmar Abhidhamma masters) is a great help as well.

This translation is solely done by me (the translator) alone .i.e., any error in meaning or essence of Dhamma is my responsibility. To those who wish to mend or give advices for the better quality please do as one's dhamma wish. And nandamedha@gmail.com will be pleased to receive such caring advices.

This Saṅkhāra Yamaka translation is started on 27.2.2011 at the hermitage near the construction of THITSAR NYAN YAUNG SHWE ZE GONE STUPA, YADANAR MAN AUNG MONASTRY, Moe Nan Village, Kaw Lin Township, Ka Thar District, Sagaing Great Division, The Union of The Republic of Myanmar. It is finished on 11.4.2011 at the hermitage near the construction of AUNG SIDDHI DHAT-PAUNG SU DHĀTU STUPA, SASANĀLANKĀRA MONASTRY, Sin Ma Village, Kaw Lin Township, Ka Thar District, Sagaing Great Division, The Union of The Republic of Myanmar.

FOREWORD

*YAMASSA VISAYĀTĪTAM , LOKANĀTHAM BHIVANDIYA ,
DHAMMASAMGHANCA AMALAM, GUṆASĀMIṆCA ME GARUM.* ⁽¹⁾

BEING THE ONE BEYOND THE MEAN OF DEATHNESS,
BEINGS' VENERABLE LORD BUDDHA, THE HIGHNESS,
OUT OF MENTAL DIRTS; THE DHAMMA AND THE SAMGHĀ,
AS WELL AS KUMĀRA MAHĀTHERA, MY LATE PRECEPTOR
TO THOSE OF HIGHLY HONOURED, I DEEPLY DO MY GĀRAVĀ. ⁽²⁾

The essence of Dhamma, especially of Abhidhamma, can be best understood only by Pāḷi, the original language used by the Lord Buddha. As usual, the changing into another language can vary the meaning and essence of the origin. Nevertheless, for those who wish to glance some of the essence of Buddha's doctrine, this English version is written.

To get more precise meaning, go with Pāḷi version and do with mediation. It is strongly urged that studying this English version can be much delightful only when the Pāḷi version is not neglected. The Pāḷi version recommended here is the Chaṭṭha Saṅgīti Edition. The guidelines from good Abhidhamma scholars or a basic knowledge in Abhidhamma is at least a necessity.

Because of the limited access, time, language barrier (especially in grammatical basis) and my knowledge, may I ask for the forgiveness and sympathy if un-appropriate usage or translation is seen by the readers.

This is intended to be a track rather than a text for the study of Buddha Dhamma. For broader view, translations in some phrases are changed without interfering the original meaning.

The will of mine (the translator's):

1. The copyright of this writing is FREE, as Dhamma was freely given by the Dhamma Master, the Lord Buddha.
2. No one, no organization, no group, no what-so-ever can claim the copyright ownership of this writing.
3. Each and every personnel, group or what-so-ever can print or copy; or both to the whole, or any part(s) of this writing and mentioning this origin is not a necessity.
4. Those who copy or print the part(s) or the whole writing must not claim the ownership of those copied or printed parts. And must note that those parts can be freely copied or printed; if necessary.
5. For Muditā, may nandamedha@gmail.com receive the information when there's or there'll be a copying or printing process on the part(s) or the whole of this writing.

(1) The Pāṭi verse is from AYAKAUK (precise definition of Abhidhamma written by ancient Myanmar scholars).

(2) GĀRAVĀ (Pāṭi) = Respect; veneration; homage; heedfulness

GENERAL

When this translation is to be done, there are some rules that have been made;

- (a) To use the familiar usage for this translation which is intended for the ordinary (self-studying) personnel
- (b) Must not sway in the meaning
- (c) Must be the same in usage as the first (five) Yamaka English Version which is now available; and should make no different usage (that might dishonors the old version) unless when it is a truly necessity
- (d) Must be a harmony with the first (five) Yamaka English Version
- (e) Except for some words, will try to translate all Pāḥi words
- (f) Put foot-notes when it is necessary
- (g) Make the readers to get some other knowledge concerning Dhamma

Because of some rules, it is difficult to make some translations in some places.

For instance, Okāsa word is so wide. And so yattha (pronoun in general), has a range of meanings; plane/place/abode/dwelling/period/state/situation/at time being and etc., concerning where and when representing locative case. But as it was translated as “plane” always in previous (Yamaka English) translation, this translation is still the same. The word “state” might be the best (not perfect) for this word Okāsa, but as the rule (c) is made up, “plane” is the word I have chosen even though not much delighted in some sense. But as this translation is for the step (not a text) for the Dhamma study; and for the rule (d), it is proudly presented. And not using “abode” or “period” accordingly is the same intention (i.e., for the stable translation) and most of all for the rule (c).

Some of the sentences may be too long for the reader, but to help in comparative-study with original Pāḥi, it is still long and may be a bit confuse or unclear in the meaning. Which is the main verb? Which is/are the subject(s)? But as this translation is also intended as a step to hold Pāḥi sentence-constructing-style in some sense, there are many long sentences. But for some clear information, some short sentences are made in some places. For some Pāḥi words, such as {copulative or disjunctive particle, ca (and, too, also, as well....)}; when translation is done, sometimes it is left un-translated in some places. But when it is translated, even when it represents to a verb (in some places) the translation word “also” is placed not only before or after the verb, and also sometimes placed near noun for the better of the wide knowledge in understanding Dhamma. And some of the words which are in present tense are changed into present participles in order to get/hold the deep and precise meanings (by the rule of “vattamānā paccuppanne”). It is sometimes done not all because of the grammatical styles of English and Pāḥi are not the same. And even when the grammatical approaches can be matched: for the wider knowledge in Dhamma, that particular translation style is used here and there in the translation.

And most of all, it is my view that gantha (scriptures) are mostly in upalakkhaṇa or nayadassana (i.e., a basis which can be a standard). So as long as the translation is not contradicted to the original meaning, it is eligible to use other meanings. As so, this is just the (aid as in) translation (style) and intends to stand as a track rather than a text.

In using Pāḥi, Ṁ/ṁ is used, instead of Ṃ/ṃ, in honoring the old usage.

For the smooth under taking, without contradicting the essence, some grammatical changes are made, from singular to plural, active to passive and vice versa.

For the broader view, even for a word - kāmāvacāra is translated as sense sphere¹ or sensuous sphere² or sensual sphere³. And there are many alike.

When I informed a venerable scholar monk that I am to make the translation of some Yamaka, one admonishing and one praising were given. The admonishing “Better to make it with other two or three scholars” is in vain due to my current situation. The praising “It will be a better than nothing” is deeply considered. When feeling that this piece of something is not an essence breaking and worth giving, I heartedly make this translation.

By Yamaka, may all be *Yamako*⁴.

My (the translator) name is Nandamedhā. I am a (Theravāda) hermit since 8.1.2000. Before becoming a hermit, I was been for 20 months as a Theravāda novice and 3 years as a Theravāda monk. I was born in Pyay, in middle Myanmar, on 19.11.1977.

³ Too much gratified, attractive, indulged at this plane

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This work is possible only when there is a great deal of supports. It will not be enough to show the gratitude of those supporters just in words. But without mentioning them would be a much flaw indeed. I am much obliged and overwhelmed with gratitude of the followings:

- (a) The un-comparable Sammāsambuddha
- (b) The sublime Dhamma
- (c) The great Sarīghā
- (d) The most Venerable Sayadaws
- (e) The Dhamma Scholars
- (f) The lay supporters
- (g) The every kind of supports of far and near
- (h) In the very rural area, where very low capacity in using electricity (3 hours maximum per day), making this translation a possibility is truly a great challenge especially when the time-table for 4 Yamaka translations (i.e., Sarīghāra Yamaka, Anusaya Yamaka, Citta Yamaka and Dhamma Yamaka) is less than 9 weeks. When it is decided to make the translation, my brother lends his lap-top which was then at Mandalay. About 100 miles is carried out by train. And 30 miles at least by motor bike by my father just to give it to me. As of my current situations, I am not able to do the translation at one sitting. As I have a kind of Mobile-Sasana activity these days, I am to move from a place to another in every 5/6 days. And when all journeys are generally done just by walking in the rainy season at rainy places where the destinations are ranged from 7 – 40 miles, this work is more than just a work. Carrying not just a robe and some personal belongings in an alms-bowl, but also a lap-top and 5 books (3 Pāṇi Yamaka books, 1 Ayakauk and 1 book <the first five Yamaka English translated version> in total) is sometimes a bit exhausted especially when the destinations are far away. Sometimes such a day-journey is more than 40 miles walking alone and unavoidable. Wet as it is raining cats and dogs, but still sweat for such mud and track. Only when it is helped by the devotees of the rural area, it is a great relief indeed then. Even preparations for the usage of electricity {such as carrying 12-K heavy battery by the (respective) villagers to the nearest station every night to recharge, so that it might be used tomorrow in day time ... and many more} is a great deal indeed. But not every night is possible nor is the day time. Indeed the lending of their time, energy and every support I can receive is more than just precious. By such preparations this task is carried out. While it is on the move, a great deal of aids and supports from many local sources are the appetite I am much relied upon.

I translate the version into materiality, and they transform it into reality.

Without them (including many un-seen dhamma supports from various sources), rather than the whole translation, not even a single word can be a possibility.

MAY ALL, WHO MADE THIS POSSIBLE, BE FREED FROM THE PAIRED WORLD.

PREFACE

TO MY LATE PRECEPTOR,

THE MOST VENERABLE

BADDANTA KUMĀRĀBHIVAṂSA

*SĀSANADHAZA SIRĪPAVARA DHAMMĀCARIYA,
SAKKYASĪHA DHAMMĀCARIYA,

NAINGANTAW OVĀDĀCARIYA (NATION'S OVĀDĀCARIYA),
TIPIṬAKA OVĀDĀCARIYA, TIPIṬAKA PUCCHAKA*

In November 2010, I came to know that the English version of the four Yamaka out of the late five Yamaka were lost somehow. The Yamaka has ten kinds in which first five are called the lower Yamaka and the late five as the higher Yamaka. The English version of the lower Yamaka was written by Mūla Paṭṭhāna Sayadaw Ven. Nārada and Banmaw Sayadaw Ven. Kumārābhivaraṁsa assisted by some other venerable monks and lay persons. The higher Yamaka English version was been written as well by these venerable masters. Somehow, only the copy of the lower Yamaka English version can be found these days.

By Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw, I came to know that the higher Yamaka English version is to be published again. But only one Yamaka (i.e. Indriya Yamaka) is left as manuscript and the other four Yamaka can not be traced now. So it is decided to make a new translation. By the wish of Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw, this work is firstly established.

The copied book of the five lower Yamaka English version which is shown by Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw to apply for, is deeply a good help in this translation. And the AYAKYAUK (or the Precise Definition written by ancient Myanmar Abhidhamma masters) is a great help as well.

This translation is solely done by me (the translator) alone .i.e., any error in meaning or essence of Dhamma is my responsibility. To those who wish to mend or give advices for the better quality please do as one's dhamma wish. And nandamedha@gmail.com will be pleased to receive such caring advices.

This Anusaya Yamaka translation is started on 12.4.2011 at the hermitage near the construction of AUNG SIDDHI DHAT-PAUNG SU DHĀTU STUPA, SASANĀLAṆKĀRA MONASTRY, Sin Ma Village, Kaw Lin Township, Ka Thar District, Sagaing Great Division, The Union of The Republic of Myanmar. It is finished on 15.5.2011 at the hermitage near the construction of THITSAR NYAN YAUNG SHWE ZE GONE STUPA, YADANAR MAN AUNG MONASTRY, Moe Nan Village, Kaw Lin Township, Ka Thar District, Sagaing Great Division, The Union of The Republic of Myanmar.

FOREWORD

*YAMASSA VISAYĀTĪTAM , LOKANĀTHAM BHIVANDIYA ,
DHAMMA SAMGHANCA AMALAM, GUṆASĀMIṆCA ME GARUM.* ⁽¹⁾

BEING THE ONE BEYOND THE MEAN OF DEATHNESS,
BEINGS' VENERABLE LORD BUDDHA, THE HIGHNESS,
OUT OF MENTAL DIRTS; THE DHAMMA AND THE SAMGHĀ,
AS WELL AS KUMĀRA MAHĀTHERA, MY LATE PRECEPTOR
TO THOSE OF HIGHLY HONoured, I DEEPLY DO MY GĀRAVĀ. ⁽²⁾

The essence of Dhamma, especially of Abhidhamma, can be best understood only by Pāḷi, the original language used by the Lord Buddha. As usual, the changing into another language can vary the meaning and essence of the origin. Nevertheless, for those who wish to glance some of the essence of Buddha's doctrine, this English version is written.

To get more precise meaning, go with Pāḷi version and do with mediation. It is strongly urged that studying this English version can be much delightful only when the Pāḷi version is not neglected. The Pāḷi version recommended here is the Chaṭṭha Saṅgīti Edition. The guidelines from good Abhidhamma scholars or a basic knowledge in Abhidhamma is at least a necessity.

Because of the limited access, time, language barrier (especially in grammatical basis) and my knowledge, may I ask for the forgiveness and sympathy if un-appropriate usage or translation is seen by the readers.

This is intended to be a track rather than a text for the study of Buddha Dhamma. For broader view, translations in some phrases are changed without interfering the original meaning.

The will of mine (the translator's):

1. The copyright of this writing is FREE, as Dhamma was freely given by the Dhamma Master, the Lord Buddha.
2. No one, no organization, no group, no what-so-ever can claim the copyright ownership of this writing.
3. Each and every personnel, group or what-so-ever can print or copy; or both to the whole, or any part(s) of this writing and mentioning this origin is not a necessity.
4. Those who copy or print the part(s) or the whole writing must not claim the ownership of those copied or printed parts. And must note that those parts can be freely copied or printed; if necessary.
5. For Muditā, may nandamedha@gmail.com receive the information when there's or there'll be a copying or printing process on the part(s) or the whole of this writing.

(2) GĀRAVĀ (Pāṭi) = Respect; veneration; homage; heedfulness

GENERAL

When this translation is to be done, there are some rules that have been made;

- (a) To use the familiar usage for this translation which is intended for the ordinary (self-studying) personnel
- (b) Must not sway in the meaning
- (c) Must be the same in usage as the first (five) Yamaka English Version which is now available; and should make no different usage (that might dishonors the old version) unless when it is a truly necessity
- (d) Must be a harmony with the first (five) Yamaka English Version
- (e) Except for some words, will try to translate all Pāḥi words
- (f) Put foot-notes when it is necessary
- (g) Make the readers to get some other knowledge concerning Dhamma

Because of some rules, it is difficult to make some translations in some places.

For instance, Okāsa word is so wide. And so yattha (pronoun in general), has a range of meanings; plane/place/abode/dwelling/period/state/situation/at time being and etc., concerning where and when representing locative case. But as it was translated as “plane” always in previous (Yamaka English) translation, this translation is still the same. The word “state” might be the best (not perfect) for this word Okāsa, but as the rule (c) is made up, “plane” is the word I have chosen even though not much delighted in some sense. But as this translation is for the step (not a text) for the Dhamma study; and for the rule (d), it is proudly presented. And not using “abode” or “period” accordingly is the same intention (i.e., for the stable translation) and most of all for the rule (c).

Some of the sentences may be too long for the reader, but to help in comparative-study with original Pāḥi, it is still long and may be a bit confuse or unclear in the meaning. Which is the main verb? Which is/are the subject(s)? But as this translation is also intended as a step to hold Pāḥi sentence-constructing-style in some sense, there are many long sentences. But for some clear information, some short sentences are made in some places. For some Pāḥi words, such as {copulative or disjunctive particle, ca (and, too, also, as well....)}; when translation is done, sometimes it is left un-translated in some places. But when it is translated, even when it represents to a verb (in some places) the translation word “also” is placed not only before or after the verb, and also sometimes placed near noun for the better of the wide knowledge in understanding Dhamma. And some of the words which are in present tense are changed into present participles in order to get/hold the deep and precise meanings (by the rule of “vattamānā paccuppanne”). It is sometimes done not all because of the grammatical styles of English and Pāḥi are not the same. And even when the grammatical approaches can be matched: for the wider knowledge in Dhamma, that particular translation style is used here and there in the translation.

And most of all, it is my view that gantha (scriptures) are mostly in upalakkhaṇa or nayadassana (i.e., a basis which can be a standard). So as long as the translation is not contradicted to the original meaning, it is eligible to use other meanings. As so, this is just the (aid as in) translation (style) and intends to stand as a track rather than a text.

In using Pāḥi, Ṁ/ṁ is used, instead of Ṃ/ṃ, in honoring the old usage.

For the smooth under taking, without contradicting the essence, some grammatical changes are made, from singular to plural, active to passive and vice versa.

For the broader view, even for a word - kāmāvacāra is translated as sense sphere¹ or sensuous sphere² or sensual sphere³. And there are many alike.

When I informed a venerable scholar monk that I am to make the translation of some Yamaka, one admonishing and one praising were given. The admonishing “Better to make it with other two or three scholars” is in vain due to my current situation. The praising “It will be a better than nothing” is deeply considered. When feeling that this piece of something is not an essence breaking and worth giving, I heartedly make this translation.

By Yamaka, may all be *Yamako*⁴.

My (the translator) name is Nandamedhā. I am a (Theravāda) hermit since 8.1.2000. Before becoming a hermit, I was been for 20 months as a Theravāda novice and 3 years as a Theravāda monk. I was born in Pyay, in middle Myanmar, on 19.11.1977.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This work is possible only when there is a great deal of supports. It will not be enough to show the gratitude of those supporters just in words. But without mentioning them would be a much flaw indeed. I am much obliged and overwhelmed with gratitude of the followings:

- (a) The un-comparable Sammāsambuddha
- (b) The sublime Dhamma
- (c) The great Sarīghā
- (d) The most Venerable Sayadaws
- (e) The Dhamma Scholars
- (f) The lay supporters
- (g) The every kind of supports of far and near
- (h) In the very rural area, where very low capacity in using electricity (3 hours maximum per day), making this translation a possibility is truly a great challenge especially when the time-table for 4 Yamaka translations (i.e., Sarīghāra Yamaka, Anusaya Yamaka, Citta Yamaka and Dhamma Yamaka) is less than 9 weeks. When it is decided to make the translation, my brother lends his lap-top which was then at Mandalay. About 100 miles is carried out by train. And 30 miles at least by motor bike by my father just to give it to me. As of my current situations, I am not able to do the translation at one sitting. As I have a kind of Mobile-Sasana activity these days, I am to move from a place to another in every 5/6 days. And when all journeys are generally done just by walking in the rainy season at rainy places where the destinations are ranged from 7 – 40 miles, this work is more than just a work. Carrying not just a robe and some personal belongings in an alms-bowl, but also a lap-top and 5 books (3 Pāṇi Yamaka books, 1 Ayakauk and 1 book <the first five Yamaka English translated version> in total) is sometimes a bit exhausted especially when the destinations are far away. Sometimes such a day-journey is more than 40 miles walking alone and unavoidable. Wet as it is raining cats and dogs, but still sweat for such mud and track. Only when it is helped by the devotees of the rural area, it is a great relief indeed then. Even preparations for the usage of electricity {such as carrying 12-K heavy battery by the (respective) villagers to the nearest station every night to recharge, so that it might be used tomorrow in day time ... and many more} is a great deal indeed. But not every night is possible nor is the day time. Indeed the lending of their time, energy and every support I can receive is more than just precious. By such preparations this task is carried out. While it is on the move, a great deal of aids and supports from many local sources are the appetite I am much relied upon.

I translate the version into materiality, and they transform it into reality.

Without them (including many un-seen dhamma supports from various sources), rather than the whole translation, not even a single word can be a possibility.

MAY ALL, WHO MADE THIS POSSIBLE, BE FREED FROM THE PAIRED WORLD.

Nandamedhā

REGULAR (ANULOMA) PLANE (OKĀSA)

275. Latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures has been eliminated at this plane. Has latent state of hatred been eliminated at that plane?

Neither “(it) has eliminated” nor “(it) has not eliminated” should be said.⁵⁰

Latent state of hatred has been eliminated at this plane. Has latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures been eliminated at that plane?

Neither “(it) has eliminated” nor “(it) has not eliminated” should be said.

⁵⁰ Why is it “neither (it) has eliminated nor (it) has not eliminated should be said,” rather than “no” just like in CHAPTER ON LATENCY (ANUSAYA VĀRA)? It is said as there is no relation at that certain plane. The plane where latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures arises is at one plane, and latent state of hatred is at another. The latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures arises at the pleasant feeling and indifferent feeling of sensual element (Kāma Dhātu) to the person who is meditating on Magga. That person, at that certain plane, on Magga moment, has eliminated that latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures. Latent state of hatred does not arise on that same (certain) plane/situation (as latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures does) and vice versa. So when it is asked, “Does latent state of hatred has eliminated at the same (certain) plane where latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures arise?” then, neither (it) has eliminated nor (it) has not eliminate should be said is the (only) appropriate answer. E.g. the southern monastery has a mango tree, and it has no jack-fruit tree. The northern monastery has a jack-fruit tree, and it has no mango tree. When each monastery is cutting down its tree (respectively), Mr. A is the one who is cutting the mango tree at the southern monastery. If he (Mr. A) is asked whether he has cut jack-fruit tree at the southern monastery; as that (southern monastery) has no jack-fruit, “neither it is cut nor it is not cut” should be replied.

In the two feelings of sensual element, latent state of ignorance has been eliminated and latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures also has been eliminated.

⁵⁷ Puthujjana persons

⁵⁸ Sotāpanna persons and Sakadāgāmi persons

⁵⁹ (In Pāli) anusayā bharigā natthi: anusayā = latent states; bharigā - bharizitabbā = there lays such (latent states), and there does not lay such (latent states); such classification; natthi = (is) none. [Seven latent states lay latent in Puthujjana. In these seven, these latent states lay latent; these latent states do not lay latent; these latent states sometimes lay latent; these latent states sometimes do not lay latent: such classification should not be done. Because according to respective Okāsa, variation takes place. For instance, at Puthujjana alone, at the un-pleasant feeling of Kāma Dhātu, latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures does not lay latent, but lays latent (again) at pleasant feeling of Kāma Dhātu. So, latent states should not be classified by means of element. And should not be done at Sotāpanna and Sakadāgāmi as well]

All Ariyā persons who are of Vehapphala (Great realm; the 4th or the highest rupāvacara jhāna) plane, of Akaniṭṭha (the 5th or the highest pure-abode) plane and of Nevasaññānāsāññāyatana (the 4th or the highest arupāvacara jhāna) plane will never reborn at another plane again. (*ANUSAYA YAMAKAPĀḲI NIṬṬHITĀ*⁶⁴)

⁶³ When it is said that "latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures lays latent at the two feeling of sensual element", it should be understood in this way:

"Latent state of attachment to sensual pleasures lays latent" is said due to the main (task as in distinction) for the easy understanding. And do take that it also lays latent at iṭṭhārum (pleasing object) and dhamma which are associated (and concerning) with (vedanā) as well. At iṭṭhārum (pleasing object), domanassa (displeasure) does not lay latent. Only at aniṭṭhārum (non-pleasing object), the appropriate kilesā (moral defilements) arise. For that reason, it should be noted that latent state of hatred lays latent only at aniṭṭhārum (non-pleasing object). And such method should be understood for the whole chapter of pairs on latent states.

In November 2010, I came to know that the English version of the four Yamaka out of the late five Yamaka were lost somehow. The Yamaka has ten kinds in which first five are called the lower Yamaka and the late five as the higher Yamaka. The English version of the lower Yamaka was written by Mūla Paṭṭhāna Sayadaw Ven. Nārada and Banmaw Sayadaw Ven. Kumārābhivara assisted by some other venerable monks and lay persons. The higher Yamaka English version was been written as well by these venerable masters. Somehow, only the copy of the lower Yamaka English version can be found these days.

By Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw, I came to know that the higher Yamaka English version is to be published again. But only one Yamaka (i.e. Indriya Yamaka) is left as manuscript and the other four Yamaka can not be traced now. So it is decided to make a new translation. By the wish of Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw, this work is firstly established.

The copy of the five lower Yamaka English version which is shown by Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw to apply for, is deeply a good help in this translation. And the AYAKYAUK (or the Precise Definition written by ancient Myanmar Abhidhamma masters) is a great help as well.

This translation is solely done by me (the translator) alone i.e., any error in meaning or essence of Dhamma is my responsibility. To those who wish to mend or give advices for the better quality please do as one's dhamma wish. And nandamedha@gmail.com will be pleased to receive such caring advices.

This CittaYamaka translation is started on 15.5.2011 at the hermitage near the construction of THITSAR NYAN YAUNG SHWE ZE GONE STUPA, YADANAR MAN AUNG MONASTRY, Moe Nan Village, Kaw Lin Township, Ka Thar District, Sagaing Great Division, The Union of The Republic of Myanmar. It is finished on 18.5.2011 at the hermitage near the construction of AUNG SIDDHI DHAT-PAUNG SU DHĀTU STUPA, SASANĀLANĀKĀRA MONASTRY, Sin Ma Village, Kaw Lin Township, Ka Thar District, Sagaing Great Division, The Union of The Republic of Myanmar.

FOREWORD

*YAMASSA VISAYĀTĪTAM , LOKANĀTHAM BHIVANDIYA ,
DHAMMA SAMGHANCA AMALAM, GUṆASĀMIṆCA ME GARUM.* ⁽¹⁾

BEING THE ONE BEYOND THE MEAN OF DEATHNESS,
BEINGS' VENERABLE LORD BUDDHA, THE HIGHNESS,
OUT OF MENTAL DIRTS; THE DHAMMA AND THE SAMGHĀ,
AS WELL AS KUMĀRA MAHĀTHERA, MY LATE PRECEPTOR
TO THOSE OF HIGHLY HONoured, I DEEPLY DO MY GĀRAVĀ. ⁽²⁾

The essence of Dhamma, especially of Abhidhamma, can be best understood only by Pāḷi, the original language used by the Lord Buddha. As usual, the changing into another language can vary the meaning and essence of the origin. Nevertheless, for those who wish to glance some of the essence of Buddha's doctrine, this English version is written.

To get more precise meaning, go with Pāḷi version and do with mediation. It is strongly urged that studying this English version can be much delightful only when the Pāḷi version is not neglected. The Pāḷi version recommended here is the Chaṭṭha Saṅgīti Edition. The guidelines from good Abhidhamma scholars or a basic knowledge in Abhidhamma is at least a necessity.

Because of the limited access, time, language barrier (especially in grammatical basis) and my knowledge, may I ask for the forgiveness and sympathy if un-appropriate usage or translation is seen by the readers.

This is intended to be a track rather than a text for the study of Buddha Dhamma. For broader view, translations in some phrases are changed without interfering the original meaning.

The will of mine (the translator's):

1. The copyright of this writing is FREE, as Dhamma was freely given by the Dhamma Master, the Lord Buddha.
2. No one, no organization, no group, no what-so-ever can claim the copyright ownership of this writing.
3. Each and every personnel, group or what-so-ever can print or copy; or both to the whole, or any part(s) of this writing and mentioning this origin is not a necessity.
4. Those who copy or print the part(s) or the whole writing must not claim the ownership of those copied or printed parts. And must note that those parts can be freely copied or printed; if necessary.
5. For Muditā, may nandamedha@gmail.com receive the information when there's or there'll be a copying or printing process on the part(s) or the whole of this writing.
6. Any distribution which is the copy part of this writing must be FREE (or non-profit action).

(2) GĀRAVĀ (Pāṭi) = Respect; veneration; homage; heedfulness

GENERAL

When this translation is to be done, there are some rules that have been made;

- (a) To use the familiar usage for this translation which is intended for the ordinary (self-studying) personnel
- (b) Must not sway in the meaning
- (c) Must be the same in usage as the first (five) Yamaka English Version which is now available; and should make no different usage (that might dishonors the old version) unless when it is a truly necessity
- (d) Must be a harmony with the first (five) Yamaka English Version
- (e) Except for some words, will try to translate all Pāḥi words
- (f) Put foot-notes when it is necessary
- (g) Make the readers to get some other knowledge concerning Dhamma

Because of some rules, it is difficult to make some translations in some places.

For instance, Okāsa word is so wide. And so yattha (pronoun in general), has a range of meanings; plane/place/abode/dwelling/period/state/situation/at time being and etc., concerning where and when representing locative case. But as it was translated as “plane” always in previous (Yamaka English) translation, this translation is still the same. The word “state” might be the best (not perfect) for this word Okāsa, but as the rule (c) is made up, “plane” is the word I have chosen even though not much delighted in some sense. But as this translation is for the step (not a text) for the Dhamma study; and for the rule (d), it is proudly presented. And not using “abode” or “period” accordingly is the same intention (i.e., for the stable translation) and most of all for the rule (c).

Some of the sentences may be too long for the reader, but to help in comparative-study with original Pāḥi, it is still long and may be a bit confuse or unclear in the meaning. Which is the main verb? Which is/are the subject(s)? But as this translation is also intended as a step to hold Pāḥi sentence-constructing-style in some sense, there are many long sentences. But for some clear information, some short sentences are made in some places. For some Pāḥi words, such as {copulative or disjunctive particle, ca (and, too, also, as well....)}; when translation is done, sometimes it is left un-translated in some places. But when it is translated, even when it represents to a verb (in some places) the translation word “also” is placed not only before or after the verb, and also sometimes placed near noun for the better of the wide knowledge in understanding Dhamma. And some of the words which are in present tense are changed into present participles in order to get/hold the deep and precise meanings (by the rule of “vattamānā paccuppanne”). It is sometimes done not all because of the grammatical styles of English and Pāḥi are not the same. And even when the grammatical approaches can be matched: for the wider knowledge in Dhamma, that particular translation style is used here and there in the translation.

And most of all, it is my view that gantha (scriptures) are mostly in upalakkhaṇa or nayadassana (i.e., a basis which can be a standard). So as long as the translation is not contradicted to the original meaning, it is eligible to use other meanings. As so, this is just the (aid as in) translation (style) and intends to stand as a track rather than a text.

In using Pāḥi, Ṁ/ṁ is used, instead of Ṃ/ṃ, in honoring the old usage.

For the smooth under taking, without contradicting the essence, some grammatical changes are made, from singular to plural, active to passive and vice versa.

For the broader view, even for a word - kāmāvacāra is translated as sense sphere¹ or sensuous sphere² or sensual sphere³. And there are many alike.

When I informed a venerable scholar monk that I am to make the translation of some Yamaka, one admonishing and one praising were given. The admonishing “Better to make it with other two or three scholars” is in vain due to my current situation. The praising “It will be a better than nothing” is deeply considered. When feeling that this piece of something is not an essence breaking and worth giving, I heartedly make this translation.

By Yamaka, may all be *Yamako*⁴.

My (the translator) name is Nandamedhā. I am a (Theravāda) hermit since 8.1.2000. Before becoming a hermit, I was been for 20 months as a Theravāda novice and 3 years as a Theravāda monk. I was born in Pyay, in middle Myanmar, on 19.11.1977.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This work is possible only when there is a great deal of supports. It will not be enough to show the gratitude of those supporters just in words. But without mentioning them would be a much flaw indeed. I am much obliged and overwhelmed with gratitude of the followings:

- (a) The un-comparable Sammāsambuddha
- (b) The sublime Dhamma
- (c) The great Sarīghā
- (d) The most Venerable Sayadaws
- (e) The Dhamma Scholars
- (f) The lay supporters
- (g) The every kind of supports of far and near
- (h) In the very rural area, where very low capacity in using electricity (3 hours maximum per day), making this translation a possibility is truly a great challenge especially when the time-table for 4 Yamaka translations (i.e., Sarīghāra Yamaka, Anusaya Yamaka, Citta Yamaka and Dhamma Yamaka) is less than 9 weeks. When it is decided to make the translation, my brother lends his lap-top which was then at Mandalay. About 100 miles is carried out by train. And 30 miles at least by motor bike by my father just to give it to me. As of my current situations, I am not able to do the translation at one sitting. As I have a kind of Mobile-Sasana activity these days, I am to move from a place to another in every 5/6 days. And when all journeys are generally done just by walking in the rainy season at rainy places where the destinations are ranged from 7 – 40 miles, this work is more than just a work. Carrying not just a robe and some personal belongings in an alms-bowl, but also a lap-top and 5 books (3 Pāṇi Yamaka books, 1 Ayakauk and 1 book <the first five Yamaka English translated version> in total) is sometimes a bit exhausted especially when the destinations are far away. Sometimes such a day-journey is more than 40 miles walking alone and unavoidable. Wet as it is raining cats and dogs, but still sweat for such mud and track. Only when it is helped by the devotees of the rural area, it is a great relief indeed then. Even preparations for the usage of electricity {such as carrying 12-K heavy battery by the (respective) villagers to the nearest station every night to recharge, so that it might be used tomorrow in day time ... and many more} is a great deal indeed. But not every night is possible nor is the day time. Indeed the lending of their time, energy and every support I can receive is more than just precious. By such preparations this task is carried out. While it is on the move, a great deal of aids and supports from many local sources are the appetite I am much relied upon.

I translate the version into materiality, and they transform it into reality.

Without them (including many un-seen dhamma supports from various sources), rather than the whole translation, not even a single word can be a possibility.

MAY ALL, WHO MADE THIS POSSIBLE, BE FREED FROM THE PAIRED WORLD.

PREFACE

TO MY LATE PRECEPTOR,

THE MOST VENERABLE

TIPITĀKA OVĀDĀCARIYA, TIPITĀKA PUCCHAKA

In November 2010, I came to know that the English version of the four Yamaka out of the late five Yamaka were lost somehow. The Yamaka has ten kinds in which first five are called the lower Yamaka and the late five as the higher Yamaka. The English version of the lower Yamaka was written by Mūla Paṭṭhāna Sayadaw Ven. Nārada and Banmaw Sayadaw Ven. Kumārābhivaraṇsa assisted by some other venerable monks and lay persons. The higher Yamaka English version was been written as well by these venerable masters. Somehow, only the copy of the lower Yamaka English version can be found these days.

By Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw, I came to know that the higher Yamaka English version is to be published again. But only one Yamaka (i.e. Indriya Yamaka) is left as manuscript and the other four Yamaka can not be traced now. So it is decided to make a new translation. By the wish of Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw, this work is firstly established.

The copy of the five lower Yamaka English version which is shown by Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw to apply for, is deeply a good help in this translation. And the AYAKYAUK (or the Precise Definition written by ancient Myanmar Abhidhamma masters) is a great help as well.

This translation is solely done by me (the translator) alone i.e., any error in meaning or essence of Dhamma is my responsibility. To those who wish to mend or give advices for the better quality please do as one's dhamma wish. And nandamedha@gmail.com will be pleased to receive such caring advices.

This Dhamma Yamaka translation is started on 18.5.2011 at the hermitage near the construction of AUNG SIDDHI DHAT-PAUNG SU DHĀTU STUPA, SASANĀLAṆKĀRA MONASTRY, Sin Ma Village, Kaw Lin Township, Ka Thar District, Sagaing Great Division, The Union of The Republic of Myanmar. It is finished on 20.5.2011 at the hermitage near the construction of AUNG SIDDHI DHAT-PAUNG SU DHĀTU STUPA, SASANĀLAṆKĀRA MONASTRY, Sin Ma Village, Kaw Lin Township, Ka Thar District, Sagaing Great Division, The Union of The Republic of Myanmar.

FOREWORD

*YAMASSA VISAYĀTĪTAM , LOKANĀTHAM BHIVANDIYA ,
DHAMMASAMGHANCA AMALAM, GUṆASĀMIṆCA ME GARUM.* ⁽¹⁾

BEING THE ONE BEYOND THE MEAN OF DEATHNESS,
BEINGS' VENERABLE LORD BUDDHA, THE HIGHNESS,
OUT OF MENTAL DIRTS; THE DHAMMA AND THE SAMGHĀ,
AS WELL AS KUMĀRA MAHĀTHERA, MY LATE PRECEPTOR
TO THOSE OF HIGHLY HONOURED, I DEEPLY DO MY GĀRAVĀ. ⁽²⁾

The essence of Dhamma, especially of Abhidhamma, can be best understood only by Pāḷi, the original language used by the Lord Buddha. As usual, the changing into another language can vary the meaning and essence of the origin. Nevertheless, for those who wish to glance some of the essence of Buddha's doctrine, this English version is written.

To get more precise meaning, go with Pāḷi version and do with mediation. It is strongly urged that studying this English version can be much delightful only when the Pāḷi version is not neglected. The Pāḷi version recommended here is the Chaṭṭha Saṅgīti Edition. The guidelines from good Abhidhamma scholars or a basic knowledge in Abhidhamma is at least a necessity.

Because of the limited access, time, language barrier (especially in grammatical basis) and my knowledge, may I ask for the forgiveness and sympathy if un-appropriate usage or translation is seen by the readers.

This is intended to be a track rather than a text for the study of Buddha Dhamma. For broader view, translations in some phrases are changed without interfering the original meaning.

The will of mine (the translator's):

1. The copyright of this writing is FREE, as Dhamma was freely given by the Dhamma Master, the Lord Buddha.
2. No one, no organization, no group, no what-so-ever can claim the copyright ownership of this writing.
3. Each and every personnel, group or what-so-ever can print or copy; or both to the whole, or any part(s) of this writing and mentioning this origin is not a necessity.
4. Those who copy or print the part(s) or the whole writing must not claim the ownership of those copied or printed parts. And must note that those parts can be freely copied or printed; if necessary.
5. For Muditā, may nandamedha@gmail.com receive the information when there's or there'll be a copying or printing process on the part(s) or the whole of this writing.
6. Any distribution which is the copy part of this writing must be FREE (or non-profit action).

(1) The Pāṭi verse is from AYAKAUK (precise definition of Abhidhamma written by ancient Myanmar scholars).

(2) GĀRAVĀ (Pāṭi) = Respect; veneration; homage; heedfulness

GENERAL

When this translation is to be done, there are some rules that have been made;

- (a) To use the familiar usage for this translation which is intended for the ordinary (self-studying) personnel
- (b) Must not sway in the meaning
- (c) Must be the same in usage as the first (five) Yamaka English Version which is now available; and should make no different usage (that might dishonors the old version) unless when it is a truly necessity
- (d) Must be a harmony with the first (five) Yamaka English Version
- (e) Except for some words, will try to translate all Pāḥi words
- (f) Put foot-notes when it is necessary
- (g) Make the readers to get some other knowledge concerning Dhamma

Because of some rules, it is difficult to make some translations in some places.

For instance, Okāsa word is so wide. And so yattha (pronoun in general), has a range of meanings; plane/place/abode/dwelling/period/state/situation/at time being and etc., concerning where and when representing locative case. But as it was translated as “plane” always in previous (Yamaka English) translation, this translation is still the same. The word “state” might be the best (not perfect) for this word Okāsa, but as the rule (c) is made up, “plane” is the word I have chosen even though not much delighted in some sense. But as this translation is for the step (not a text) for the Dhamma study; and for the rule (d), it is proudly presented. And not using “abode” or “period” accordingly is the same intention (i.e., for the stable translation) and most of all for the rule (c).

Some of the sentences may be too long for the reader, but to help in comparative-study with original Pāḥi, it is still long and may be a bit confuse or unclear in the meaning. Which is the main verb? Which is/are the subject(s)? But as this translation is also intended as a step to hold Pāḥi sentence-constructing-style in some sense, there are many long sentences. But for some clear information, some short sentences are made in some places. For some Pāḥi words, such as {copulative or disjunctive particle, ca (and, too, also, as well....)}; when translation is done, sometimes it is left un-translated in some places. But when it is translated, even when it represents to a verb (in some places) the translation word “also” is placed not only before or after the verb, and also sometimes placed near noun for the better of the wide knowledge in understanding Dhamma. And some of the words which are in present tense are changed into present participles in order to get/hold the deep and precise meanings (by the rule of “vattamānā paccuppanne”). It is sometimes done not all because of the grammatical styles of English and Pāḥi are not the same. And even when the grammatical approaches can be matched: for the wider knowledge in Dhamma, that particular translation style is used here and there in the translation.

And most of all, it is my view that gantha (scriptures) are mostly in upalakkhaṇa or nayadassana (i.e., a basis which can be a standard). So as long as the translation is not contradicted to the original meaning, it is eligible to use other meanings. As so, this is just the (aid as in) translation (style) and intends to stand as a track rather than a text.

In using Pāḥi, Ṁ/ṁ is used, instead of Ṃ/ṃ, in honoring the old usage.

For the smooth under taking, without contradicting the essence, some grammatical changes are made, from singular to plural, active to passive and vice versa.

For the broader view, even for a word - kāmāvacāra is translated as sense sphere¹ or sensuous sphere² or sensual sphere³. And there are many alike.

When I informed a venerable scholar monk that I am to make the translation of some Yamaka, one admonishing and one praising were given. The admonishing “Better to make it with other two or three scholars” is in vain due to my current situation. The praising “It will be a better than nothing” is deeply considered. When feeling that this piece of something is not an essence breaking and worth giving, I heartedly make this translation.

By Yamaka, may all be *Yamako*⁴.

My (the translator) name is Nandamedhā. I am a (Theravāda) hermit since 8.1.2000. Before becoming a hermit, I was been for 20 months as a Theravāda novice and 3 years as a Theravāda monk. I was born in Pyay, in middle Myanmar, on 19.11.1977.

² Too much delighted at this plane

³ Too much gratified, attractive, indulged at this plane

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This work is possible only when there is a great deal of supports. It will not be enough to show the gratitude of those supporters just in words. But without mentioning them would be a much flaw indeed. I am much obliged and overwhelmed with gratitude of the followings:

- (a) The un-comparable Sammāsambuddha
- (b) The sublime Dhamma
- (c) The great Sarīghā
- (d) The most Venerable Sayadaws
- (e) The Dhamma Scholars
- (f) The lay supporters
- (g) The every kind of supports of far and near
- (h) In the very rural area, where very low capacity in using electricity (3 hours maximum per day), making this translation a possibility is truly a great challenge especially when the time-table for 4 Yamaka translations (i.e., Sarīghāra Yamaka, Anusaya Yamaka, Citta Yamaka and Dhamma Yamaka) is less than 9 weeks. When it is decided to make the translation, my brother lends his lap-top which was then at Mandalay. About 100 miles is carried out by train. And 30 miles at least by motor bike by my father just to give it to me. As of my current situations, I am not able to do the translation at one sitting. As I have a kind of Mobile-Sasana activity these days, I am to move from a place to another in every 5/6 days. And when all journeys are generally done just by walking in the rainy season at rainy places where the destinations are ranged from 7 – 40 miles, this work is more than just a work. Carrying not just a robe and some personal belongings in an alms-bowl, but also a lap-top and 5 books (3 Pāṇi Yamaka books, 1 Ayakauk and 1 book <the first five Yamaka English translated version> in total) is sometimes a bit exhausted especially when the destinations are far away. Sometimes such a day-journey is more than 40 miles walking alone and unavoidable. Wet as it is raining cats and dogs, but still sweat for such mud and track. Only when it is helped by the devotees of the rural area, it is a great relief indeed then. Even preparations for the usage of electricity {such as carrying 12-K heavy battery by the (respective) villagers to the nearest station every night to recharge, so that it might be used tomorrow in day time ... and many more} is a great deal indeed. But not every night is possible nor is the day time. Indeed the lending of their time, energy and every support I can receive is more than just precious. By such preparations this task is carried out. While it is on the move, a great deal of aids and supports from many local sources are the appetite I am much relied upon.

I translate the version into materiality, and they transform it into reality.

Without them (including many un-seen dhamma supports from various sources), rather than the whole translation, not even a single word can be a possibility.

MAY ALL, WHO MADE THIS POSSIBLE, BE FREED FROM THE PAIRED WORLD.

³³ Abyākata is neither bhāvetabba (should be cultivated) nor pahātabba (should be abandoned), it is not mentioned in this chapter.

³⁴ End of pairs on Dhamma which are carried along by nobles.

All Ariyā persons who are of Vehapphala (Great realm; the 4th or the highest rupāvacara jhāna) plane, of Akaniṭṭha (the 5th or the highest pure-abode) plane and of Nevasaññānāsāññāyatana (the 4th or the highest arupāvacara jhāna) plane will never reborn at another plane again. The Ariyā persons who are of higher Brahma plane will never reborn at the lower Brahma plane. Needless to say from Brahma plane to Kāma plane for the Ariyā persons. There is none.

EDITORIAL PREFACE

THIS EDITION IS ESPECIALLY DEDICATED
TO MY LATE PRECEPTOR,
THE MOST VENERABLE
BADDANTA KUMĀRĀBHIVAMSA
SĀSANADHAZA SIRĪPAVARA DHAMMĀCARIYA,
SAKKYASĪHA DHAMMĀCARIYA,
AGGA MAHĀ PAṆḌITA, AGGA MAHĀ GANDHA VĀCAKA PAṆḌITA,
NAINGANTAW OVĀDĀCARIYA (NATION'S OVĀDĀCARIYA),
TIPITĀKA OVĀDĀCARIYA, TIPITĀKA PUCCHAKA

In November 2011, I came to know that a copy of the English version of the Indriya Yamaka which was written by the Banmaw Sayadaw Ven. Kumārābhivamsa is found back. As it was made around 45 years ago and type-writer version, it is not easy to make a book and to publish it. By which it will be very helpful to Abhidhamma lovers and especially by the wish of Ven. Banmaw Sayadaw, this work (re-typing and editing) is firstly established.

Firstly, the copy of Indriya Yamaka English version is scanned and posted to those who wish to help in re-typing by computer. Mg Hein Thu Aung and his friends from Meik Hti Lar, in middle Myanmar acted as a centre to run this project. They also re-typed more than 200 pages. Ven. Ariyajyoti of Bangladesh from International Theravāda Buddhist Missionary University (ITBMU), Yangon who is studying his M.A. (Buddhism) and his friends of various nationals, mostly from ITBMU also re-type 265 pages. After collecting all re-typed versions (465 pages), Mg Hein Thu Aung sent them to me while I am helping for the local Sāsana in rural area. This Indriya Yamaka translation is then re-arranged and editing was started on 13.5.2012 and finished on 22.5.2012 at the hermitage near the construction of THITSAR NYAN YAUNG SHWE ZE GONE STUPA, YADANAR MAN AUNG MONASTREY, Moe Nan Village, Kaw Lin Township, Ka Thar District, Sagaing Region, the Union of The Republic of Myanmar.

This edition is solely done by me (the editor) alone .i.e., any error in meaning or essence of Dhamma is my responsibility. To those who wish to mend or give advices for the better quality please do as one's dhamma wish. And nandamedha@gmail.com will be pleased to receive such caring advices.

Even though I am taking the responsibility of an editor, I changed very little of it as by the wish of Ven. Banmaw Sayadaw. Chattā Saṅgayanā version is the main source to do it so. But for most of the words they are un-changed to honor the original translator, Ven. Banmaw Sayadaw. Arise, Had arise, and (It had) arise are used in random just for the word Upajjittha. And some usages like; common worldlings for Putthujjana, Non returner for Anāgāmī, might not be very pleased to some English scholars, but to understand the original translation, no editing is made on such cases. It is my suggestion that Pāḷi language should be learned to get the better and precise meanings.

My sincere thanks go to Mg Hein Thu Aung and his friends from Meik Hti Lar, Bhante Ariyajyoti of Bangladesh and his friends from ITBMU for their volunteer effort in re-typing. Mahā Thera Ven. Sainvara of YADANAR MAN AUNG MONASTERY and Ven. Sīlācāra of U SHIT PIN VILLAGE MONASTERY for lending their PCs to do the editing. The devotee, U Than Htun of Chaung Nar village for his incomparable deeds especially by taking PCs back and forth to the monastery to recharge them in the middle of the very hot sun every day. Mya Than Tar Soe for her service by taking this edited material from the rural area and post it to e-friends of Dhamma which may be a small act but a must which is not easy for us (for living in rural area). And the great gratitude I owe to is the most Venerable Banmaw Sayadaw for personally asking and choosing me for this edition, by which my Dhamma friends and I can accumulate meritorious deeds in many ways.

My (the editor) name is Nandamedhā. I am a (Theravāda) hermit since 8.1.2000. Before becoming a hermit, I was been for 20 months as a Theravāda novice and 3 years as a Theravāda monk. I was born in Pyay, in middle Myanmar, on 19.11.1977.

May everyone be Indriya seeker and holder.
